Hi everyone in schools and community and public libraries. This is your final update for 2014, a year which has been absolutely outstanding for the Premier's Reading Challenge. Thank you all for your truly great efforts in supporting reading and the Challenge at your school or library.

Thank you also for your efforts in getting any corrections to certificates and awards to us by November 28. We will send all reprinted certificates ASAP, and they will arrive to your schools shortly. If you were unable to get us the corrections by this date, we have added your request to the final 2014 print by COB Friday 27 February 2015.

STOP PRESS…
At the Premier’s Reception on 21 November, the 2015 posters were unveiled. These were voted for by students on the Challenge website and they are due to arrive in your school with the first Infoconnect of the year.

Many thanks to all who voted – these are your choices.

The winner of the primary poster vote was by SA artist Donna Gynell:

The winner of the secondary poster vote was by SA artist Gabe Cunnett:

R4L Certificates
Any additional R4L award enquiries received after 29 November have been placed on the reprint list by 27 February 2015.

Fast Facts
It has been a fantastic year with more than 126,358 students participating across 681 schools which is over 95% of schools.

Participation by gender was even closer than before, with 49.47% boys and 50.53% girls. Well done everyone!
Over 1.5 million books were read in 2014; congratulations to everyone who read twelve books this year.

Congratulations also to the five schools who won a collection of 12 books for their libraries. Sixty seven schools achieved 100% of their students completing the Challenge, which is 10% of all schools who participated.

Also, congratulations to the six schools who achieved 100% in two or more Challenge reading bands. All of these schools were included in the draw. Congratulations to:

Blanchetown Primary School
Barmera Primary School
Disability Unit Victor Harbor Primary School

CESA
St Joseph’s Memorial School

AISSA
Westminster Preparatory School

Ambassadors
Thank you for the ambassador requests. All presentations by ambassadors have been finalised for 2014. As usual there were more requests than could be accommodated and all schools have been contacted if they are hosting an ambassador Visit. Please submit another ambassador request for 2015 and we will do our very best to fit you in. Please contact the teams directly for team requests, so they can offer their own programs.

Registrations for 2015
The registration process for 2014 will be automated. However, if you anticipate a change of staffing or Premier’s Reading Challenge contact/s, please email key contact details to us.

I would like to particularly thank the teacher librarians, teachers, support staff, parents and principals at your school or library for encouraging students to participate. Your immense efforts and support are very much appreciated.

Please enjoy your break, keep yourselves safe and take some time to relax and enjoy.

All the very best,

Carmel
